PREPARE	Why we	Readers who know why they are reading and what they want to get from the text are
	teach it	more active and engaged.
E.	Secret to	Before you start reading, you need to look at the text and think, Why am I reading this?
R.	success	Is it for fun? To learn something new? To meet a need? Once you know this, you can
•		determine how to approach the text.
	How we	We bring in different reading material and model how reading changes as the purpose teach it	and text change.
		Your purpose for reading will usually be one or more of the following:
		• to gain information
		• to learn how to do something
		• to solve a problem
		• to form an opinion
т		• to be entertained
TEACH		Knowing the purpose can also help you decide what you want to read. For example,
Ш		when you're reading for pleasure or to be entertained, you will read more quickly and be focused on fun, but if you're reading for new ideas, you most likely need to slow
-		down and read more carefully, slowly, and deliberately.
